CONGRESSMAN DREWRY M. C. Caldwell Dies

The community and county was shocked last Friday by the sudden and tragic death of Mr. M. C. Caldwell.

He died instantly when hit by a falling limb from a tree while at work near his home.

He was well known as a true citizen, a loyal neighbor and friend, a devoted husband and father.

He followed the mercantile business for a brief period. Then he turned to farming, with which occupation he was most successful.

In 1925 he married Susie Daniel Jones. To this union the following children were born: Mrs. S. B. Marshall, Charlotte W. V. Rev. Clark L. Caldwell, deceased, Mrs. J. L. Caldwell, deceased, Mrs. J. L. Caldwell, deceased, Mrs. J. L. Caldwell, deceased.

He is also survived by ten grandchildren, a brother, W. B. Caldwell, a sister, Mrs. Mattie Caldwell, and a half brother, J. W. Caldwell of this county.

Appomattox Digs Out As Winter Reigns

Schools Closed Until Monday; Few Accidents Roads Closed

On account of the extremely cold weather, the school of the Community School which had been announced for Friday night, March 2, will be postponed to Friday night, March 9, it was announced today.

No further rehearsals will be held until after the first concert. It is expected that the original program will be presented and all choir members, together with others who sing, are urged to be present on the above named date.

Tickets that may have been purchased will be good at any future concert.

Attention is called to the special tax notice on page 4, whereby certain tax penalties may be saved by prompt attention to same. Read this notice carefully.

1933 tax tickets for Clover Hill and Southside Districts, town of Pamplin and town of Appomattox have been turned over to me by the treasurer, I urge tax-payers to pay all local taxes by March 15th to save penalty.

I will be at the treasurer's office on Saturday. Any other time I can be reached at the Ford Motor Co.
